The Leader's message to Muslim students id Eurpoe - 30 /Jan/ 2018

In a message to a meeting of the Union of Islamic Students Associations in Europe, Leader of the Islamic Revolution Ayatollah Seyyed Ali Khamenei stressed, “Young university students must understand the current era and its developments, and prepare themselves.”

The following is the text of Ayatollah Khamenei's message read out by the Leader's representative in Europe Hojatoleslam Ejei at Imam Ali Islamic Center in Vienna:

In the Name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate
Dear young university students

The current era and its developments outline expectations from the youth which did not exist in the past or were not known. Young university students must properly understand those developments and expectations, and prepare themselves. Islamic associations and the religious atmosphere in them can help you in this preparation. The important point is to carry out this undertaking for God and out of passion for the fulfillment of responsibility. If you succeed in this, divine guidance will also come to your aid, God willing.

I ask God Almighty to bestow bliss upon you all.
Seyyed Ali Khamenei
