Leader received Assembly of Experts members - 25 /Feb/ 2010

The Leader of Islamic Revolution receiving members of the Leadership Assembly of Experts spoke of the Islamic administration as a divine system based on absolute obedience to God.
Ayatollah Khamenei continued that that those who respect the identity of the Islamic administration which is manifested in the constitution and obedience to law are part of the system, but those who trample the basic principles of the administration in theory and practice undermine their own credibility.
The Leader of Islamic Revolution added that preserving the essence of the Islamic administration and its borders is the main cause of the nation's clashes with the arrogant power. He continued that the Islamic administration endangers the arrogant powers' interests in the world and that is the source of their enmity towards the Islamic system.
Ayatollah Khamenei spoke of justice, human dignity, and peoples vote as the foundation of the Islamic administration and said because of this, elections are real in the Islamic Republic of Iran.
The Leader of Islamic Revolution continued that some denied people's vote in June 2009 election and by committing this serious sin they didn't obey the law.
"In the Islamic system, despite many so-called democratic countries, those possessing power and wealth wouldn't direct people's votes and the nation decides on their own. Their decision may be wrong, but it is their decision and everybody should respect it," The Leader of Islamic Revolution said.
Ayatollah Khamenei added that distinguishing one's stance from the enemy is necessary and blurring the differences is a big mistake which misleads people.
The Leader of Islamic Revolution asserted that the Islamic system is in a far superior position compared with 31 years ago and the February 11th rallies have proved it.
Ayatollah Khamenei also spoke of the widely spread frontline of the enemies of the people and added that centers controlled by the Zionists as well as international companies are utilizing all their power to confront the Islamic administration. He continued that at the same time some inside the country repeat enemies' false claims so as to win their confidence and pave the way for them to damage the Islamic system.
Ayatollah Khamenei resembled the Islamic administration to an arch that whoever gets on board is saved. He added that those who doesn't respect the law and the majority's vote while trying to turn the glorious election of June to a point of weakness are practically leaving the arch and lose their credibility to be part of the Islamic system.
