Issue 17: Hajj qirān differs from hajj ifrād mainly in two aspects: animal slaughtering and becoming muhrīm. During hajj qirān, the animal for slaughtering should accompany the person wearing iḥrām, thereby animal slaughtering is obligatory for him.

Likewise, in the hajj qirān, iḥrām is carried out by saying Labbayk (specific slogan of hajj) or by ishʿār or taqlīd (their meanings will be mentioned in issue 140) but in hajj ifrād, iḥrām is materialized only by saying Labbayk.
