President Hujjat ul-Islam Rohani Visits Supreme Leader in Hospital - 8 /Sep/ 2014

President Rohani visited Ayatollah Khamenei in hospital, following the Supreme Leader's operation this morning. The President said that all people should pray for His Eminence's health, length of life and increased opportunities in service of the people of Iran and the world of Islam.

Referring to his previously scheduled foreign trip this afternoon, President Rohani said that he personally is inclined to remain in Tehran, but that the Supreme Leader said that work should continue as scheduled.