

How to read Ḥamd and sūrah in qaḍā' prayer

8 /Dec/ 2016

Q: While performing the qaḍā' of morning prayer, should the 'recitation' be done loudly or quietly?

A: It is obligatory to recite the Fātiḥah and the other chapter loudly in morning, maghrib, and 'ishā' prayers whether the prayers are performed on time or later and at all times even if their qaḍā' is being performed during the day. If one intentionally does not recite them loudly, his prayer is void.
