

Khums on savings from yearly income

14 /Dec/ 2016

Q: I am not yet married. Is it permitted for me to save money from my present income for my future needs?

A: If the annual income is saved to be spent for necessary marriage expenses within several coming days, it is not subject to khums.