

Quitting Wuḍū midway & Renewing It - 29 /Aug/ 2019

Q.I Can one quit wuḍū midway without the interruption of any of the nullifiers of wuḍū and then shortly thereafter start a new wuḍū?

A.I As a matter of mandatory caution, it is impermissible to start a new wuḍū after terminating a previous one without the interruption of one of the nullifiers of wuḍū if the time separating the two is not long enough to be deemed disruptive to the continuity (muwālāt) of the wuḍū-making process.
