Women’s Covering of Hands and Face when Adorned and Beautified - 14 /Sep/ 2019

Q.| We know that women are not regularly obligated to cover their hands up to the wrist and their face in the presence of non-maḥram men, but what if they are wearing rings or nail polish or have makeup on?

A.| If the hands and the face are adorned and beautified, they too must be covered in the presence of non-maḥram men.
