

The Criteria for Ḥalāl Music - 10 /Oct/ 2019

Q. What are the criteria by which one can distinguish halāl from ḥarām music? Is classical music ḥalāl?

A: Any music which is lahw $\bar{i}$  and deviating people from the way of Allah which is suitable for gatherings of merry making is haram whether it is classic or not. To distinguish the subject of a ruling depends on the view of the mukallaf as a part of common people. There is no objection to other kinds of music in itself.
