Listening to Music - 30 /Nov/ 2019

question| What is the rule concerning listening to a music?

answer| Listening to any music that tends to distance one from God the Exalted, from spiritual values, and from moral virtues and inclines one to debauchery, aimlessness, and sin is impermissible. If a music does not involve such negative consequences, listening to it is per se permissible.