Making Use of Items Belonging to a Specific Religious Institution - 22 /Dec/ 2019

question| Can we make use of items that belong to a specific ḥusaynīyyah or religious institution for a religious ceremony at a different place?

answer| The matter in question is contingent on the intention of the donor and the purpose of consecration. If the items have been donated specifically for use at a particular religious institution, it is impermissible to use them elsewhere.
