Tapping into Municipal Electric Grid for Use in Religious Mourning Ceremonies - 24 /Dec/ 2019

question| Is it permissible to bypass government-installed electricity meters and tap directly into the municipal electricity grid in order to power religious mourning ceremonies and other such religious events?

answer| If the direct connection to the electric grid is legally authorized, it is unproblematic, but otherwise, it is impermissible and renders those who are responsible canonically accountable.