Association of a Person Infected with COVID19 - 28 /Aug/ 2021

Question: If a person has been infected with COVID-19 or developed some suspicious symptoms, is it permissible for him to associate with those who do not know about his condition?

Answer: If he thinks there is rational possibility to infect others, it should be avoided.