Saying Prayer in Moving Vehicles - 12 /Sep/ 2021

Question: Is it correct to recite the obligatory prayers in vehicles that are moving?

Answer: The place of worship should be motionless; that is, it should be in such a way that the worshiper can pray with calm and motionless body. So prayer is not correct in places that cause the body to move involuntarily, such as cars and trains, except when due to time constraints, etc. one has to pray in such a place.
