This multiple talented and knowledgeable cleric was one of the rare and glorious figures. He is considered amongst few examples of whom, in each period, provide spirituality to the eyes and hearts of acquaintances and benefit them to their knowledge, awareness, intellect, and hearts. The books and speeches of this nobleman have been and will be a rich source of grace for the lovers of profound knowledge, God willing. I offer my condolences to all his friends, students, and devotees, especially to the faithful and revolutionary people of Amol and the enthusiastic youth who were fascinated by his revolutionary positions and high human characteristics. I ask God Almighty to grant His mercy, forgiveness, and exaltation to him.
