To Use the Property of Someone Who Does Not Pay Khums - 2 /Jan/ 2022

Question: My father does not pay khums, can we use his property? Is it obligatory for the children to pay khums of the used property?

Answer: There is no problem in using his property and you have no obligation to pay khums for it, but if you are sure that he does not pay khums, your duty, if it meets the conditions, is to point out the issue of khums and enjoin him to pay khums.
