The second night of the mourning ceremony for the martyrdom of Hazrat Fatemeh Zahra - 4 /Jan/ 2022

The second night of the mourning ceremony for the martyrdom of Hazrat Fatemeh Zahra, peace be upon her, was held in the presence of the Supreme Leader of the Islamic Revolution in Imam Khomeini's Husseiniyya;

In a speech at the ceremony, Hujjat al-Islam-wal-Muslimin Rafi'i, emphasizing that, unlike the West, Islam's view of "woman" is not abusive, said: "Islam confirms the social presence of women invaluable and constructive areas such as education, culture and health. And Historical evidence also shows the presence of Muslim women, including Hazrat Fatemeh Zahra; peace be upon her, in some of these areas. Still, the social activity of women should be in a way that both respects the sanctity and limits of the sharia and does not harm the heart of the family.

Also, in this ceremony, Mr Meysam Matiei narrated the tragedy and chanted lamentation.
