The representatives of the Leader are sent to pay homage to those maimed during and after the Revolution - 1 /Mar/ 2023

On the occasion of the blissful anniversary of the birth of the Qamar Bani Hashim (The Moon of Bani-Hashim), Hazrat Abolfazl al-Abbas (peace be upon him), which has been designated as the day of those maimed during and after the Revolution, at the behest of the Leader of the Islamic Revolution, his representatives were dispatched to visit their residences so as to pay homage to them for the bravery they had shown and the sacrifices that they had made.

In Tehran, Hojaje Islam Misters Shokri, Haj Ali Akbari, Akhtari, Mohsen Qomi, and Mohammad Qomi paid a visit to the homes of the aforementioned to learn about their living conditions and pay homage to them for their sacrifices during the sacred defence and also while defending the shrine of Hazrat Zeynab (peace be upon her) in Syria.

Mr Qadizadeh Hashemi, the head of the Martyrs' and Sacrificers' Foundation, visited the homes of some maimed during the Revolution and spoke with them afterwards.

Similarly, Friday prayer leaders and representatives of Ayatollah Khamenei from across the country visited the same homes to pay homage to them.
