Int'l Qods conference kicks off - 14 /Apr/ 2006

Tehran, April 14 - An International conference on the holy Qods and support for the Palestinians kicked off in Tehran minutes ago at the presence of the Supreme Leader of Islamic Revolution, Ayatollah Seyyed Ali Khamenei and President Mahmoud Ahmadinej ad.

The event brings together delegates from fifty countries, including 24 Parliament Speakers.

Featuring prominently at the three-day conference are topics such as racial discrimination practiced by the Zionist regime of Israel against Palestinians, the need to support the new Palestinian government, the return home of all Palestinian refugees and formation of an independent Palestinian state with Beit-ul-moqaddas as its capital.
