Europe should learn lesson form public hatred of America and Zionist regime - 20 /Mar/ 2008

Islamic Revolution Leader, Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei in the Imam Reza (AS) holy shrine elaborated the Islamic System's achievements during the past thirty years and said "The country needs two important platforms including progress and justice to enter the Islamic Revolution's fourth decade."

"The prerequisite for progress alongside justice is that all officials should consider themselves duty bound in using innovation and carry out all projects and which have started since last years or recent years in 1387," the IR Leader said.

"The victory of the Islamic Revolution in Iran break the false division of hegemonic and subduable countries and the Islamic system announced clearly that was against hegemonic attitudes," he added.

Pointing that the Islamic system has resisted against hegemonic powers during the last 30 years which have changed the equations in the Middle East in favor of the Islamic system, Ayatollah Khamenei said "The Middle East which was an arena for American administration's show of power, now it has changed into a scene for America's defeats."

"The enemy during the last 30 years posed different plots including the imposed war, economic sanctions and psycological war but the Islamic system sttod firmly against them and increased its power more than before and nowadays the Islamic Revolution's message have been deep-rooted."

Pointing to the regional and world nations' love of the Islamic Revolution, the IR Leader said "IRI's progress in scientific, technologic and socials fiels has lead to expansion of the Islamic Revolution's message."

"The Islamic system on the thershold of entering the fourth decade should move with an speed more than normal and make up for backwardness."

"Justice without progress would result in poverty and progress without justice would not be in favor of the country because the class gap must be reduced and all people should gain equal opportunities for work and production," he said.

"The people demand should be lead to progress, increase in productivity, national unity, scientific achievements, spirituality, reducingthe calss gap, public welfare, political improvement and national self-confidence. These issue would just be gained through justice.

Pointing to some view over impossibility of economic progress alongside reducing the class gap, Ayatollah Khemenei said "The western versions should not be considered as the only method and we should rely on innovation in this path."

IR Leader said that investment by rich people in production sections is a worship which should be boosted in the society.

"The enemies of the Iranian nation are the Zionist satanic network and the oppressor American regime which have been defeated and isolated among the world public opinion."

"While the American government have interrogated over 32 million people during the last 6 years, have done earsdropping and its president has blocked the anti-torture bill how it can support the human rights."

Pointing to the America's 200 secret prisons around the world specially in Europe, Ayatollah Khamenei said "The Europeans who speak about the human permanently why they were silent before these illegal prisons."

"The Europeans who make hue and cry against any question over holocaust why they do not object to the insult to the Islam's great prophet but support it."

IR Leader advised some European countries to take lessons from public hatred of the Zionist regime and America and added "Today the human rights order all governments and nations to be united against America and Zionists' oppressions and the Iranian nation is braver in this path."

"The Amerca and European countries' claim about democracy is a lie because whenever in the world the people had opinion against their views, they (America and Europe) would oppose them such as the popular Hamas government in Palestine.

Ayatollah Khamenei rejected some allegations againts the religious democracy of the Islamic system and said "The Islamic system in Iran which enjoy a great and unique religious democracy in the world is threatend by sanctions while these issues are not new."

"The Iranian nation is not afraid of the threats and have had many achievemnts through its capabilities."

"The Islamic system have gained achievements more than before and we hope that the last days of 1387 would be better than the first days of the year," Ayatollah Khamenei said.

He termes the Noblest Messenger of Allah as the symbol of purity and honesty and added "The motives behind insult to him are like those in the pre-Islamic period."

"Oppressors are frightened at the Islam so they insulted to the Noblest Messenger of Allah but their plot would be foiled."

Pointing to the Imam Sadeq's (AS) great role in expansion of the teachings of Hazrate Mohammad' (PBUH) household, IR Leader said "The Islamic world is in need to unity more than past."

Pointing to the unity week he added "The message of the unity week is distiguishing the communalities of the Islamic sects."

Pointing to the enmity of America and Zionists' with the Muslims including Shiis and Sunnis, Ayatollah Khamenei reiterated "The obvious cases of this enmity is the Imperialism's opposition to Hezbollah in Lebanon and the Islamic Jihad and Hamas in Palestine so the Islamic Ummah specially elites should consider the issue and make efforts in the path of more unity."
