

Islamic Revolution Leader: Culture of endowment must be promoted - 17 /Feb/ 2009

Islamic Revolution Leader Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei in a meeting with the officials of the Endowment and Charity Affairs Organization termed endowment as a blessed act.

Pointing to the status of endowment in Islam and Godly religions, Ayatollah Khamenei said that the culture of endowment should be boosted.

The IR Leader referred to various endowed properties in the country and advised the relevant authorities to follow the endower's wishes in making use of the properties, adding that the culture of endowment will be further boosted if they act so.

Ayatollah Khamenei then touched on numerous violations of endowment law by officials of the Pahlavi regime and said that a significant policy of the Islamic system was to revive Islamic traditions of endowment.
