IRI would not climb back in face of aggression - 20 /Sep/ 2009

Islamic Revolution Leader Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei in an after-Eid-ul-Fitr-prayers ceremony said religious holidays especially the Eid ul-Fitr provide a nice opportunity to examine the capacities of the Islamic Ummah and specify its vulnerabilities, adding that the Islamic Ummah at present was in immediate need of a return to the direct path of divinity and the rule of Islam.

IRI authorities, ambassadors of Islamic countries as well as Iranian people from different walks of life were present at the ceremony.

"Today the immediate need of Islamic Ummah and Muslim governments is to return to the direct path of God and rule of Islamic doctrine as well as to utilize their ample geopolitical capacities in a united manner in the face of the enemies until the Ummah attains an apex of dignity and power," the IR Leader urged.

Ayatollah Khamenei called the Iranian nation a model in this regard, adding that while the deposed, betrayer regime of Pahlavi was once in the chain of supporters of Zionist regime, the Iranian nation thank to the Islamic Revolution is now taking pride in its perseverance against the bully conduct of the most impudent arrogance in the world and history.

Ayatollah Khamenei said the Iranian nation has got a say in modern scientific fields and significant political equations thank to the rule of Islam in Iran.

"The Islamic Establishment of Iran never claims to enjoy a fullblown rule of Islamic statute however the more the Iranian nation has accomplished to exercise Islamic rules the more it has cherished its related fruits. This is a practical model for the Islamic Ummah," Ayatollah Khamenei recommended.

The IR Leader then deplored that there was a lack of integrity among the Islamic nations and governments, adding that given the Islamic Ummah was united and exhausted all its geopolitical capacities, the Palestinian people and the Gaza residents would not suffer the present plight and the bullies could not impose their desires on the Islamic governments.

"At this situation, even if a word of protest is leveled at the Usurper Zionists, the enemy would unleash a flood of charges against the source through its propaganda tools haranguing 'there are some who seeks to destroy a UN member state'," Ayatollah Khamenei regretted.

"The Zionist regime is a fake regime which has annihilated a nation however human rights claimants have closed their eyes at the flagrant oppressions," Ayatollah Khamenei regretted.

The Islamic Revolution Leader then rejected the Western media's false claims that the Islamic Republic was seeking to destruct the Zionist regime by military equipments, adding that the Islamic Republic of Iran has long put forward a logical and human initiative for the Palestinian issue.

Ayatollah Khamenei said the Islamic System of Iran was following a Koran-based platform of defending innocent nations and individuals, adding that the enmity of the arrogant with the Islamic Republic stemmed from the same reality.

Ayatollah Khamenei said the arrogant was following two major drives of Islamophobia and Iranophobia in a bid to scuttle the unity and integrity of the world of Islam.

"The US government during the previous presidential spell carried out many efforts against Iran and the rest of Islamic world. The current government unlike a batch of seemingly friendly remarks and statements is seeking the same Islamophobic and Iranophobic policy," the IR Leader cautioned.

Pointing to US claims about 'threat of Iranian missiles,' Ayatollah Khamenei said "these are false claims which come within the framework of the Iranophobic policy whereas the Iranian nation in the past thirty years has never initiated an attack against any country".

"Iran follows a policy of friendly and brotherly interaction with Islamic countries and neighbors and a precise and rational interaction with those countries which have no aggressive mood towards the Islamic Republic," Ayatollah Khamenei said.

The IR Leader noted however that the Islamic System would never remain silent towards any aggression against the Iranian nation or government.

Ayatollah Khamenei also denounced the allegation that Iran was trying to manufacture nuclear weapons as a despicable lie.

"The Islamic Republic of Iran based on an Islamic idea categorically forbids the manufacturing and using of nuclear weapons and stays the idea. US authorities too know the reality however they repeat the allegation within the Iranophobic framework," Ayatollah Khamenei said.

Ayatollah Khamenei urged the US government to revise its policy adding however that the Iranian nation is vigilantly watching the US enmities and would stand up to them.

Ayatollah Khamenei also noted that the Islamic Republic would not climb back even in the face of any aggression.

The IR Leader said Islam and Imam Khomeini's views recommend the nation and the youths persevere against the enmities and utilize all capacities at hand in accomplishing scientific progress and Islamic dignity, adding that the audience has met the advice and would follow the suit in future.
