The Leader of Islamic Revolution concluded that since the early stages of the Islamic Revolution the US, UK, royalists, and the rest of the arrogant powers fought against the late Imam Khomeini and it has continued to the present.

Ayatollah Khamenei asserted that nothing has changed and the enemies of the Islamic Government has been lining up since before the election.

The Leader of Revolution stated that the event of December 30 was the result of nation's wisdom and said it is not enough even if we thank God for this wisdom hundreds of time.

Ayatollah Khamenei added that the nations' awareness and presence are the custodians of the revolution and constant fear for the arrogant powers.

The IR Leader then said that the arrogant powers have faced a defeat in their assessments about the recent developments in Iran, adding that the awareness of the Iranian nation has foiled their plots and that the imperialists try to prevent the Islamic Ummah from hearing the voice of foresight and preparedness of the nation.

The IR Leader said the anger of the youths across the country over the desecration of Ashura and Imam Hossein (AS) was natural, adding however that all people should be cautious not to help the enemy sedition by taking uncontrolled moves.

Ayatollah Khamenei reiterated that the enemy is planning a complicated sedition adding we should perform cautiously and decide on time so that the enemy plot is foiled.

The IR Leader then urged the responsible organs to follow the rules in this regard.

Pointing to the Holy Quran's call to justice and moderation, Ayatollah Khamenei said that all people should avoid uncontrolled behaviors and perform according to the law.

The IR Leader said the mass presence of the nation in the December 30 rallies was a final notice, adding that the heads of the three branches of the government heard the nation's demands and should do their duties against rioters.

Ayatollah Khamenei noted that the enemy seeks to block the country's economic and scientific progress and hinder the strong presence of the Islamic Republic at international arenas.

The IR Leader then described the huge presence of the nation as the most significant support for the system. He rejected the charges of the alien media that the December 30 rallies were arranged by the government, adding by making such charges, the enemy inadvertently acknowledged that the Islamic Republic enjoys a strong public approval and that no government in the world could arrange such a huge national gathering and bring people to the streets in the course of two days.

Ayatollah Khamenei said under the auspices of Imam Khomeini and sacrifice of the martyrs, the people and the government have formed a single reality and that all the authorities, he himself too, make drops of the large ocean of nation.
