Ayatollah Khamenei led Eid al-Fitr prayers - 10 /Sep/ 2010

Islamic Revolution Leader Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei led a landmark Eid al-Fitr prayers ceremony early morning on Friday in the campus of Tehran University.
Eid al-Fitr begins on Friday in Iran according to a statement issued by the office of the IR Leader.
According to the statement, accredited moon observers deployed across the country have happened to observe the first slivers of the new moon as herald of the next lunar month of Shawal and the coming of the auspicious Eid al-Fitr, marking the end of the holy fasting month of Ramadan.