IR Leader arrives in Qom on historic visit - 19 /Oct/ 2010

Islamic Revolution Leader Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei arrived in the holy Qom city on a landmark visit to the warm welcome of people in the city.
Thoroughfares leading to the holy shrine of Hazrat Masouma, where the IR Leader will make his landmark speech are full of people who are waiting the arrival.
A large number of people have taken to the holy shrine's veranda to grasp the closest possible points for listening to the leader's remarks while many others have traveled on foot to the provincial center from other provincial cities of Qom Province.