IR Leader lauds Iran's science, technology achievements - 9 /May/ 2011

Leader of the Islamic Revolution Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei said Monday that Iranian nation have made the enemy acknowledge Iran's achievements in science and technology thanks to the opportunity created by the Islamic Revolution.

Ayatollah Khamenei made the remarks in a meeting with hundreds of enthusiastic people from Kordestan province.

Leader of the Islamic Revolution recalled his previous visit to Kordestan province and appreciated the warm welcome and sincerity of the people during his stay in the province.

Ayatollah Khamenei said that people of Kordestan province have always remained committed to the Islamic Revolution and has disappointed the enemies at various junctures.

Ayatollah Khamenei said that the Iranian nation have established progress in the international community to the extent that the enemies have admitted several times.

IR Leader said that from the early stages of the Islamic Revolution, the enemies did what they could to suppress the revolution but to no avail as the vigilant Iranians powerfully thwarted their plots.

Elsewhere in his speech, Ayatollah Khamenei appreciated the hard work of people of Kordestan province to help implement the government's development projects and said that the great Iranian nation attained significant success and development in various sectors.

Leader of the Islamic Revolution said each province in the country should play its significant role in the country's development and Kordestan province is not an exception.

Ayatollah Khamenei said that the people of Kordestan province are loyal to the Islamic Revolution and have thwarted all conspiracies.