Islamic Ummah in dire need of unity - 10 /Feb/ 2012

Leader of the Islamic Revolution Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei on Friday said that Muslim Ummah will attain dignity and prosperity through their allegiance to the path of Messenger of Allah Hazrate Muhammad (PBUH).

IR Leader made the remarks in a meeting with a group of officials, participants and ambassadors of the Muslim countries attending the 25th Conference on Islamic Unity in Tehran.

In the meeting, Ayatollah Khamenei congratulated the audience on the occasion of the auspicious birth anniversary of the Messenger of Allah Hazrate Muhammad (PBUH) and birth anniversary of Imam Jafar Sadeq (the sixth Imam of infallible prophet's household).

Messenger of Allah Hazrate Mohammad (PBUH) is the manifestation of science, justice, ethics, blessings, said IR Leader, adding that the people throughout history have always sought high morals and the role and responsibility of the Muslim Ummah is of prime importance to this effect.

God has promised to help the true followers attain their lofty aspirations, said Ayatollah Khamenei.

World Muslims are in dire need of unity, said Ayatollah Khamenei and referred to awakening of world nations and their uprising.

"Regional and global developments along with unleash of revolutions in the region have placed the US and the Zionist regime in their weakest status which have created an unprecedented situation for Muslim Ummah," Ayatollah Khamenei added.

Ayatollah Khamenei said that there is no doubt that the Muslim Ummah will attain its dignity once again in the world.

The enemies of the Islamic revolution spared no effort to quell the voice of this revolution, but to no avail they failed achieving their objectives, said IR Leader.

The Leader of the Islamic Revolution said that the Iranian nation who remained committed to the path of Late Imam Khomeini could conquer all plots hatched by the enemies with success.

Prior to Leader's remarks, President Ahmadinejad also congratulated the auspicious occasion and said the Islamic revolution and other freedom-seeking movements throughout the world have been inspired by the teachings of the Messenger of Allah Hazrate Mohammad (PBUH).

Recent developments in the region should be regarded as the continuation of path of Hazrate Mohammad (PBUH) which will lead the world to a desirable status to get rid of all tyrants and Zionists, said Ahmadinejad.
