Leader: Satisfying people, satisfies God - 15 /Apr/ 2012

In a meeting with senior officials of the Islamic Republic of Iran's Police, the Leader said that if officials managed to bring peace to the hearts of people by their services, it will be rewarded by God.

Ayatollah Khamenei said that IRIP personnel are the soldiers of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

"Security is the fundamental requirement of the society in order to make planning. In the absence of security, no planning can be made for the progress and development," he added.

Elsewhere in his address, IR Leader highlighted the significance of collective decision making and planning for the development and progress of the country in light of peace of mind and security.

Ayatollah Khamenei drew attention of the police officials to vulnerability of individuals and certain organizations to corruption.

"As some individuals may be vulnerable to corruption and certain organizations may also be affected by corruption, it requires enough care and measures must be taken to remove vulnerability," he said.

IR Leader highlighted the need to be trustworthy and to prefer the interests of the organization to those of individuals and said that if such a spirit prevails it will guarantee the progress of the country.

Prior to the Leader's remarks, Commander of IRIP Brigadier-General Esmail Ahmadi-Moqaddam presented a report on the performance of the personnel under his command.
